Emma promises her mom that she will help her whenever she needs.

Then maybe she won't be so tired all the time.

Croco Doc gives Emma's mom some vitamins and some other pills that have iron.

Vitamins are important to help the baby grow.

Next they go to another room to do an ultrasound. An ultrasound lets them see the baby that is inside her mom's belly.

They even hear the baby's heart-beat!

A few weeks later, the baby is born! Croco Doc sings him a lullaby to help him sleep, but instead of sleeping, he starts crying!

They all find out that the baby is a boy.
Emma can't wait to meet her new baby brother!
