Cut through the black line

Bruno is playing at recess when he hears someone laughing behind him.

Igor, Scott, and Bea are talking about him and laughing at his crooked teeth!

Bruno bursts into tears when he gets home. He doesn't like his teeth and now the other kids are making fun of him! His parents decide to take him to see Croco Doc.

Croco Doc uses special glasses with magnifying lenses to see Bruno's teeth better.

Croco Doc decides that Bruno needs braces. They go to the orthodontic room to put them on his teeth. The braces will correct the position of the teeth little by little.

He explains that teeth have to grow. If the adult teeth are still in wrong, the mouth can be deformed.

A few months later, Bruno goes to the clinic to have his braces removed. Now his teeth are perfect! Everyone at school is going to be jealous of his perfect smile!

The first couple of days, the braces are annoying and hurt a bit, but soon Bruno gets used to them and doesn't even realize he has them anymore!

A little while later, Croco Doc has finally finished putting on the braces.

Before he leaves, he gives Bruno some instructions so that his teeth are straightened correctly.

Bruno will have to be careful with food that can get stuck between his braces: gum, popcorn, sunflower seeds...

He also needs to make sure to brush his teeth very well.
