

Nina the koala's family is ready for a long car trip:

They're going to spend the weekend at her cousins' house!

Bored during the long journey, Nina decides to read her favorite comic. However, she quickly feels queasy and ends up vomiting inside the vehicle!

To rest and allow Nina to recover from motion sickness, her moms decide to stop at a service station near the highway.

They're so fortunate to run into Croco Doc and Hippo Grac, who are on their way to an important medical conference.

As expected, Croco Doc is prepared to explain everything about "Croco Doc's Guide to Avoiding Car Sickness"!

The guide is full of useful tips:
not eating too much before a car trip, sitting in the middle seat, looking ahead, using the air conditioning...

It's also important not to read, use a mobile phone or tablet, or play games during the journey.
For a long trip, it's recommended to leave early in the morning so that the little ones can sleep!

Finally, Croco Doc gives Nina a syrup to prevent motion sickness. It should be taken half an hour before leaving and is only advisable for very long trips.

It seems Crat may not have heard Croco Doc's advice about not eating too much before a trip...

He's indulging himself!

And all the food he had consumed ends up coming out!

Not only that, but he immediately starts reading in the car...
